

REMOVAL OF HISTORIC CEMETERY OFF GROUND BOUGHT FOR STEEL PLANT IN FALLS TOWNSHIP IS NOW UNDER WAY

Bodies Being Taken from 2½-Centuries-Old Burying Ground of Harrison-Pemberton Families to Plot at Penn's Restored Manor House at Pennsbury — Archaeologists Locate First Two Bodies, Those of A Young Man and Other of A Half-Grown Girl.

TULLYTOWN, Jan. 13 — Removal of the historic two-and-a-half centuries old cemetery of the Harrison-Pemberton families, associates of William Penn, from the former ground of the Pennsylvania Maritime Academy, Falls township, to its new location on the grounds of Penn's restored Manor House at Pennsbury, is now under way.

Archaeologists of the Pennsylvania Historical and Museum Commission, yesterday recovered the first two bodies—that of a man in early life, and the other of a half-grown girl.

The graves are being moved in order to clear the tract for the large improvements shortly to be undertaken by the U. S. Steel Corporation, which is to build a mammoth steel plant taking in most of area just south of Morrisville.

The graveyard being removed is what remains of a larger cemetery founded in 1687 by two of Penn's colonizers. One was James Harrison, a close friend of Penn and the man who served as Penn's steward at Pennsbury, three miles southwest. The other was Harrison's son-in-law, Phineas Pemberton, who rose to become the most important of Penn's representatives in this part of the colony. He served as register of wills, clerk of the courts, master of the rolls, register general, recorder of proprietary quit-rents, member of the Provincial Council, member of the Assembly, Speaker of the Assembly and member of Penn's Council of State.

These men first settled the portion of Bucks County which was known as "The Point" and consists of a promontory of land just south of Biles Island, in the winter of 1682-3. They built what was intended to be their permanent home, calling it "Grove Place," and established a settlement of their family, friends, and servants. Unfortunately, the location, in those days, proved to be seriously unhealthy, and within fifteen years most of the members of four generations of the family died. Phineas Pemberton then built the farm manor now known as Bolton Farms, on higher ground a few miles west, and moved away from Grove Place. On his death, however, his body was brought back to the family burial plot at "The Point."

According to historians, the cemetery has had several vicissitudes before its present removal. It is described as having been originally 160 feet square. The present generation has known it in the form in which it was restored in 1905 by descendants of the Pemberton family—a walled-in area about 30 by 40 feet. Extreme care must be used by the archaeologists to trace and recover the bodies believed to be in the cemetery. Work is slow. When one of the men engaged comes across nails or traces of wood, still greater care is exercised. The bones thus located are removed and placed in a separate burial box. Among the unexpected discoveries during this process were the skeletons of two dogs, believed to be pets buried in the family graveyard.

It is expected that ten days will be required to complete the search for the bodies, which, according to the family monument, number at least thirteen. A considerable longer period will be needed to move the walls of the graveyard to their new location and re-inter the bodies there, according to T. Russell Stackhouse, superintendent of Pennsbury Manor.

The family monument, which also is to be moved from the old graveyard and placed in the new one, has the following inscription:

This is the second ancient cemetery to be moved to make way for the U. S. Steel development. Some months ago about 200 bodies were taken from the old Quaker meeting burying ground known as Pennsbury, and re-interred in the Friends cemetery at Fallsington. Both these meetings date back to the earliest days of Pennsylvania, and have many associations with William Penn and his colonizers.

It is of interest to note that the oldest person whose body is to be removed from "The Point" to Penn's Manor, the mother of James Harrison, was born in 1601—three and a half centuries ago.

Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2 Celebrate "Twelfth Night"

On Monday evening, Girl Scout troop No. two, St. James church, under the leadership of Mrs. Edward Priestly and Mrs. Harold Tomlinson, celebrated "twelfth night" with the burning of the Christmas greens. During this festivity, the girls sang songs.

A hilarious skit was presented, the baking of a magic cake. This is done for "good wishes" for the coming year. A cake already baked with a pea and a bean in the ingredients was covered at one end of the table, at the other end, a girl mixed a cake batter. At the magic words, the first cake was uncovered and each girl received a piece. The one who found the pea was crowned "queen" with a silver crown topped with a star. The one finding the bean was crowned "king." These two arranged the entertainment for the balance of the evening.

The queen was Gloria Vogel and the king, Betty Cary. The crowns were made by Mrs. Julius Gonza. The cake was baked by Mrs. Walter Garretson.

Refreshments of cake and cocoa were served. Members of the committee present were: Miss Lois Lang, Mrs. Rodrick Cary and Mrs. Arthur Phipps.

FIRE DRIVES FAMILY FROM CROYDON HOME

Oil Stove Explodes and Ignites Interior of Albert Hill Residence

NEIGHBORS AID THEM

CROYDON, Jan. 13 — A family was driven from its home last evening, when an oil stove exploded, setting fire to the interior of the dwelling of Albert Hill, 822 Sixth avenue. The only person at home at the time was Mrs. Hill.

The oil stove caught fire and in an attempt to remove the stove from the premises, it was overturned, spilling its contents of blazing fuel over the floors and igniting the home.

Flames spread through the rooms to the attic and damaged the interior of the house considerably.

The family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Hill and three children, have been given shelter by neighbors across the street, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lang, as the residence is not suitable for occupancy.

Croydon Fire Department and the Bucks County Rescue Squad responded.

Truck Skids Into House; Knocks It Off Foundation

PARKLAND, Jan. 13 — A truck, operated by LeRoy Marks, 25, Robinson avenue, Trenton, N. J., traveling west on Route 1 here yesterday, was attempting to pass a passenger vehicle, and in doing so increased his speed and skidded on a patch of ice, causing the truck to run off the highway and crash into a frame house, owned by William J. McGuire, 63, who was not home at the time.

The force of the impact set the frame structure two feet out of line, causing damage to the front of the building.

Marks was arrested on charges of reckless driving filed before Justice of Peace Horace Cooper. Langhorne. Trooper John McDonough made the investigation.

TAXES ARE INFLATIONARY

Propaganda is a strange and wonderful thing. There is something hypnotic about hearing a remark made over and over again. No matter how ill-founded it may be, regardless of how often it may be disputed or denied, the assertion comes to be accepted and believed. And what a rude shock it is when those who act on the assumption that the fairytale is true collide with realities!

For months we have been hearing that the Truman Administration can control the inflationary effect of the defense program by levying high taxes. By constant repetition, the doctrine has come to be accepted. It is repeated on all sides. It even has been echoed by businessmen, financial experts and economists who certainly ought to know the facts about money—and would, if they would just forget the spell which constant repetition has put them under, and look at the problem with cold-blooded detachment.

The fact is that high taxes are not deflationary. High taxes can be, and usually are, terrifically powerful, almost irresistible, inflationary forces.

Really, this is so simple that the fundamental part of the story is something a child can understand.

Let's trace the cycle through. Let's see where taxes go, and whether they hold down price-inflation, or other kinds of inflation; and if not, whether they themselves are not inflationary.

Broadly speaking, there are two kinds of taxes. There are direct taxes on commodities—excise taxes, sales taxes, etc. And there are taxes which are not directly upon commodities—income taxes, corporation taxes, etc.

It is very obvious that if the government levies a ten-dollar excise tax or sales tax upon a certain watch, that tax must go into the price of the watch in question. If it is a hundred-dollar watch, its price becomes $110. That's a direct 10 per cent inflation of the watch's price.

But how about the effect of the other types of taxes upon prices? A little thought will convince you that these taxes eventually show up in prices. There is no where

ANDALUSIA

On Tuesday evening, the Mothers Association of Andalusia met at Camp Andalusia. Guest speakers for the evening were Scoutmaster James Pettit and Cubmaster William Stearner. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Fred Keller and Mrs. McCloskey.

On Wednesday, Mrs. Fred Keller entertained at lunch at her home, Mrs. Edward Carey, Mrs. Harold Weinland, Mrs. M. Ziner and Mrs. Howard Beldin.

The card party to be held at St. Charles' Hall by the Andalusia Lions Club is to be held Feb. 3rd instead of Feb. 10th, as previously announced.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Eisele announce the engagement of their daughter, Helen Marie, to Mr. Harry Lutes, Torresdale. No date has been set for the wedding.

NEWPORTVILLE

The members of the Cheerful Workers of the Newportville Community Church—Presbyterian, held their regular meeting in the church social hall on Wednesday evening with 20 attending, and Mrs. Charles Everett, Sr., president, in charge.

The singing of a hymn followed the devotional period led by Mrs. Fred Kohler, Sr.

It was agreed to hold a celebration in honor of the 25th anniversary of the Cheerful Workers, which was organized in January of 1926, and has been holding a meeting twice a month ever since. After much discussion, it was decided to witness a play in Philadelphia on Jan. 27th, and enjoy dinner in town.

Following adjournment, a game was enjoyed, and refreshments served by the hostess. The next meeting will be Jan. 24th, with Mrs. George Romig as hostess.

Kiwanis Club at Langhorne To Meet Tuesday Evening

Kiwanis club of Bucks County Lincoln highway will hold a meeting Tuesday, with a dinner being served at 6:30 p. m. at the Langhorne Legion Country club.

The speaker will be Ruben R. Blane, of the Social Security Administration, Trenton, N. J., whose subject will be "The New Social Security Law." Immediately following the club session there will be a board of directors meeting.

Irvin Cross, treasurer, announces that dues for the first half of 1951 were due on Jan. first.

ROSE GIVEN VERDICT AFTER 2-DAY TRIAL

Carter Rose, Fallsington, Wins Case Tried In County Court

SUIT WAS FOR $3,264

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 13 — After deliberating four hours at the conclusion of a two-day trial, a jury Thursday, before Judge Fred W. Davis, of Stroudsburg, in Civil Court, here, returned a verdict in favor of the defendant, Carter Rose, of Fallsington.

The trial grew out of a dispute concerning paying for a fill-in on a property at Street road and Building road, Bensalem township. The plaintiffs, Harry and Helen J. Cohen, were suing for $3,264 with interest since Dec. 2, 1948.

Although the case was not regarded as difficult by the Court, the jury had to be called in, after deliberating several hours, and after returning for further deliberation, reached a verdict in less than ten minutes.

Mrs. Sarah J. Vogel, Quakertown, RD 1, housewife, said to the Court: "The rest of the jury and I do not

Speaker Tells Audience We Have Failed To Learn

NEWTOWN, Jan. 13—Headmaster Richard McFeeley, George School, in his address before the Men's Brotherhood of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, stated in part: "We have not learned from past experiences where to improve conditions, we are heading down the wrong lane and toward a third World War."

The influx into military service has already affected one-third the colleges in the United States and in Penn State Forestry alone the enrollment is down 50% due to the enlistments. We do not have sufficient vision and do not prepare for problems that arise. Most of the public schools in our area are not prepared for the present enrollment, and what will they do when the Steel Industry starts and there is that additional number for our schools? We do not enforce safety measures on the highways—40,000 are killed or injured each year. We should get organized locally, statewide and nationally; we have not learned from experience,—do not have enough vision. What are we doing for the 40 million alcoholics, who are useless to us? One million elementary teachers are needed in the United States yearly and all we may expect are the 25,000 who graduate annually," stated Mr. McFeeley.

The meeting was conducted by the newly-elected president, Andrew H. Dillman.

Dinner was served by Mrs. John Whiteside, Mrs. Roy Albright, Mrs. Lewis Fitzgerald, Mrs. Leonora Scott and Mrs. J. Herbert Krusen, with Mrs. Donald Downs in charge of the dining room.

STEEL MILL HEAD TO ARRIVE SOON

Albert J. Berdis To Be Superintendent of Plant In Falls Township

A PURDUE GRADUATE

Albert J. Berdis, who is to be superintendent of the Fairless Works new mill to be built in Falls Township, is expected to arrive in the area in a few days to look the mill site over and seek living accommodations.

Announcement of his appointment came from S. J. Jenks, vice president for manufacturing of the United States Steel Company in Pittsburgh.

Berdis, 41 years old, an engineering graduate of Purdue University, who joined United States Steel in 1929, has been working with corporation technicians on plans for the new works. Construction will begin in March. The new superintendent is a native of Whiting, Ind.

Berdis' first assignment was at the sheet and tin mill in Gary, Ind. In 1935, he was transferred to Pittsburgh as chief design engineer for the Irvin Works. This plant is considered one of the most modern sheet and tin plate mills in the world.

He became chief engineer of the Irvin Works and in 1945 was appointed assistant to the general superintendent.

In 1947, Berdis was named superintendent of the steel plant at Vandergrift, Pa., where steel products for the electrical industry are made. Almost a year ago he returned to the Irvin Works, but soon was engaged on plans for the mill here.

The mill is designed as a complete steel plant, turning out sheets, bars, pipe, tin plate and other products from a start with ore and the other materials that go into steel. Output may begin at the end of this year. The mill will be completed in 1952. A highly mechanized center of latest design, it will employ about 4,400 people, three-quarters of them recruited locally.

THE WAR

By Howard Handelman

(Far Eastern Director, I. N. S.)

TOKYO, Jan. 13 — (INS) — Out-numbered United Nations troops beat off repeated attacks today by a 260,000-man Communist force in an intense battle for control of Korea's central mountain range.

American, French and Dutch troops exacted a high toll in casualties from the Communist force attempting to spring through the Sobak mountains down the snow-covered slopes toward the peninsula's southeast coast.

In the U. S. Second Division sector alone, 1,100 enemy troops were killed by UN air strikes and artillery and small arms fire Friday.

Action along other sectors of the Korean front was confined to patrols. Chinese and North Korean reinforcements were seen moving toward the Wonju area and the enemy also continued a buildup of strength in the western sector below Red-held Seoul.

A U. S. Eighth Army communique issued at noon Saturday (10 p. m. Friday EST) described the action around Wonju as "the battle of So-back" and said it was "increasing in scope."

The official announcement said 3,500 enemy troops have been killed in this area since Thursday.

The enemy flanking effort carried Red spearheads to Machari, 28 miles southeast of Wonju. Machari lies 13 miles northeast of Chechon on a main highway.

American, French and Dutch troops fighting in foot-deep snow with the temperature at 21 below zero carried out successful local counter-blows to slow down the Reds.

The French were forced to abandon high ground a mile and a half south of Wonju. But a UN regiment

SETTLE CIVIL CASES WITHOUT TRIALS

Morrisville Plaintiff Awarded $385 Damages in Auto Case

COMPROMISE FOR $350

DOYLESTOWN, Jan. 13—Resuming civil court, after recessing on Monday, President Judge Hiram H. Keller, Wednesday, authorized a jury to assess damages in the case of William F. Knotts, Morrisville, R. D., versus Harry Kimble, Edgely, and Earl E. Shire, Philadelphia, both defendants, who failed to appear and made no defense.

The plaintiff, Knotts, was awarded a verdict of $385.23 by a jury, which never retired. The plaintiff's car was damaged to that extent in a two-car collision Sept. 25, 1949, near Penn Valley.

The jury was composed of Leonard F. Heath, Lacey Park; Vernon Caudwine, Bristol, R. D.; Allan Sobelman, Ivyland; Viola M. Craig, Langhorne, R. D.; William S. Newman, Yardley, R. D.; Ruth Eichner, Quakertown; Alma Tracey, Hulmeville; Elwood Harrar, Chalfont; Thomas Schatt, Hulmeville; Harry Magill, Jr., Yardley; Anna Miller, Langhorne, R. D.; and G. E. Rowland Murray, Feasterville.

Treves Horticultural Society To Hold First Meeting of Year

The first meeting of the new year of the Treves Horticultural Society will be held in the Community house, Tuesday evening at eight p. m.

Many who have visited charming "Williamsburg" and all who are hoping to some time in the future. Whichever the case may be, will enjoy a visit there with Marguerite Phillips. Miss Phillips with an enviable reputation in the lecture field, comes with her delightful presentation of that historic shrine. Highlighted by 80 slides and color movies, forty-five thrilling minutes await those who attend. Miss Phillips says, "We, in Pennsylvania, could profitably copy Virginia in many ways, not the least being the publicizing of our historic shrines."

Begin working now for the nice prizes to be awarded Dec. 1951, to those having scored the most points for outstanding entries in the "Little Shows". At this meeting enter as many of the following classes as possible: Class one, Centrepiece depicting a winter scene; Class two, Semi-miniature arrangement of dried material; Class three, Pot of forced bulbs; Class four, Dish garden made by the exhibitor; Class five, House plant owned by exhibitor at least three months; Class six, Arrangement featuring berries for desk or coffee table.

BENSALEM WINS 3RD GAME IN ROW; PENNSBURY LOSES

TRENTON, N. J., Jan. 13.—Bensalem Township won its third consecutive game last night as it beat Pennsbury High, 38-29, in a Lower Bucks County League fracas on the Parker School floor. It was the fifth triumph of the season for the Owls and second league win. Pennsbury has dropped both of its league games and has a season's record of three and four.

There wasn't enough Ray Brays or Elwood Fritz in the Pennsbury lineup to aid the Falcons last night. This pair registered 28 of the 29 points, the other counter being a foul conversion by Al Reed. The remainder of the Pennsbury lineup did not score a field goal nor did they have a foul try.

Fritz did fine work in scoring 15 points as he committed four personal fouls in the first half and played cautiously all during the second half. Ray made 13 points.

Despite the fact that the lid was on as far as foul shooting went, Bob Whitfield managed to score six field goals for the winners. He made but three fouls in 12 attempts to give him 15 points for the night, three more than Al Bader.

The teams were even footing as the first quarter closed with each having six points. At half-time, the boys of Coach John Messinger took a 19-14 edge on shooting by Whitfield and Bader with Fritz keeping Pennsbury in the contest.

The boys started to rough it up a little in the third quarter but exchanged goal for goal with the same quartet of players keeping the scoring alive. At the end of the third canto, the score was 25-20 with Bensalem on the long end.

The Owls pulled away from their foes in the final quarter and maintained the lead and towards the finish increased it to nine points. Johnny Bowman did excellent work in this quarter in controlling the ball and passing to Whitfield and Bader under the nets with Alex Martin coming through with a pair of fielders.

In the preliminary game, Coach "Cy" Bachman's Pennsbury Jayvees topped the boys of Coach Arnold Ody by a 36-25 score. Elliott scored 11 of the Bensalem points with Briggs getting 14 Pennsbury points.

Tuesday evening, Bensalem will battle Bristol for the Lower Bucks County League leadership. The game will be played on the Bensalem floor.

LIGHTER LOAD
NEW YORK.—(INS)—The paper milk container was credited today with lifting a 10 billion pound burden from the arms of the nation's home makers. The American Can Company, announcing that 1950 industry production is estimated at a record 6,500,000,000 units, said one result is a lighter burden for housewives carrying milk supplies home from food stores.

JUNIOR HIGH WINS OVER BENSALEM JR'S.

Bristol Junior High won its fourth straight game yesterday afternoon, trouncing the Bensalem Junior High dribblers, 56-31, on the local court. The Bristol boys are unbeaten.

The one-sided victory gave Coach Ben Watson an opportunity of giving his entire squad a chance to see action as he used 17 players in the tilt.

It wasn't until the second half opened that the Bristol team began to shake the cords consistently with field goals. The Junior Warriors had but a nine-point lead at the recess period but at the end of the third period were out in front by a 44-14 score. The locals also blanked Bensalem in the first quarter to take a 11-0 lead.

Dick Crosby had 16 points for the winners with Otto Brown accounting for 12 Bensalem tallies.

THE WAR

held on to Hill 247 southwest of Wouju in a battle with an estimated Red force of 6,000 to 10,000 troops.

Hill 247 had been taken by the Communists Friday but the UN regiment later regained it.

UN troops were holding positions in the southern outskirts of bomb-ravaged Wouju despite the enemy's numerical superiority in this sector.

In the battle of Sobaek the enemy was attempting to gain control of mountain passes in the highway network connecting Wouju, Machari and Chungju 25 miles south of Wouju.

Enemy troops lunging toward Chungju had reached positions 70 miles inside South Korea below the 38th Parallel.

Air activity by swarms of UN war planes was stepped up to blunt prongs of the enemy ground drive.

Some 70 miles west of Wouju in the coastal area, the enemy continued a buildup of troops but the front was comparatively quiet.

Columns of Red troops—one estimated at 1,500 men—were spotted by reconnaissance planes moving south below Osan, which is 28 miles south of Seoul.

U. S. Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers pounded enemy troops all along the front, flying close support missions for the UN ground forces.

PROFY QUINTET TO TRY FOR 4TH STRAIGHT WIN

The Profy quintet tries for its fourth straight win of the Bristol Basketball League tomorrow afternoon as it meets the Fifth Ward Sporting Club on the Rohm and Haas floor. In the second contest of the afternoon, Franklin A. C. plays the Hibernians. First game will begin at two o'clock.

The Profymen, regular season champions of last season, will have the following in the starting lineup: Henry Konfcal, Joe Pindar, Val Bielecki, "Eddie" Oliver, and Alan Burton. Pindar is one of the leading scorers of the circuit and has hit the double-figures in every tilt.

Fifth Ward is still seeking its first win of the season and Manager Soddie Caro intends to start Joe Potena, Fred Constantino, Nick Lomma, Joe Bandine, and Pete Mancini. The Franklin-Hibernians affair should be interesting. A triumph for the Hibbs will put them in a deadlock with the Franklin boys for third place.

Bill Wallick, Tony Palumbo, Howard Keys, Toby Oriola, and Stan Lelinski will start for Franklin with Tom Donnelly, Charlie Simmons, Bill Ennis, Bill Burr, and Roy Ketts being the opening quintet for the Hibernians.

MOOSE LEADS DART LEAGUE

Displaying surprising power the Loyal Order of Moose team has taken the lead in the Bristol Clubmen's Association Dart League. In what was considered a showdown battle the Moose and Mutual aid engaged in combat. When the curtain was drawn on this match the Moose had emerged clearly as the winner.

The Mutual Aid team which has been the powerhouse team, the past two years, was defeated in all three of the games. The consistent 42 plus pitching of Seader was a big factor in this upheaval. In one of the games the Moose scored a season team high with 218 points, and in this game "Grump" Grimes threw a 51 for the night single high.

Another team which may turn out to be the "dark horse" of the league, The Clinton J. Lewis Lodge, has added several new players to its roster and manager Harding Johnson threatens that his team intends to upset the big "3".

SUNDAY DINNER Suggestions

WANT to go for a long drive through the country this Sunday? And not have the problem of dinner facing you when you return? Then here's a recipe for a beefsteak and kidney pie, recommended by A & P's Service for Homemakers, that you can prepare well ahead of time and store in the refrigerator until just before cooking.

Take one pound of beef kidney, wash thoroughly, and remove the outer membrane. Cut the kidney through the center, take out the fat and large tubes. The soak for an hour in a quart of water to which 2 tablespoons of salt have been added. Drain and cut crosswise into slices 1/4 inch thick.

Cut one pound of round steak into one-inch squares. Combine 1/2 cup of flour, 1 teaspoon of salt, pepper to taste, and roll the meat in it. In a large skillet, melt 1/2 cup of fat, add the meat, and brown well. Then pour in one cup of water and add a slice of lemon. Cover and simmer for 30 minutes. Add two cups of small peeled onions and three chopped carrots. Cover and simmer for another 30 minutes, stirring occasionally.

Now turn the ingredients into a medium-sized casserole. Make a pastry crust rolled to 1/4 inch thickness, cut four small holes to let steam escape, then place over the casserole. You can now store the dish in the refrigerator until just before final baking. For this step, have an oven temperature of 425°F and bake for about 30 minutes. There will be enough for six servings.

Serve with a tossed salad of romaine lettuce, chopped avocado and sliced tomatoes, dressed with olive oil and wine vinegar.

For a particularly zesty dessert, serve half grapefruit, sweetened slightly with a tablespoon of granadine.

BETTER BEHAVED

LONDON.—(INS)—The National Council of Associated Children's Homes says that Britain's children today are better behaved than their parents were as children.

NEWS OF SCHOOLS IN AREA---

All public, private and parochial schools in the Bristol area are invited to send news items for publication in this column which appears frequently.

George School

GEORGE SCHOOL, Jan. 13.—Christmas vacation over, the second term of 1950-51 began last week at George School with honors accorded one teacher, with the winter sports schedule fully underway, and with announcement of the winter term program for Sunday morning speakers.

Dr. Walter Mohr of the history department received two year-end honors from the National Council for the Social Studies. He was chosen the only secondary school man on a new "German Committee" of the Council, which will study German history books now in use in junior and senior high schools and then meet with its counterpart in Germany this summer—a group of Germans who have studied U. S. history books. Dr. Mohr was also appointed to a three-year term on the advisory board of "Social Education," the journal of the National Council.

On the winter sports front, George School's basketball team won its second game in three starts by dropping Morrisville High 40-34 last Saturday, paced by the 12 point effort of Bill Loucke of Fallsington.

Coach Stanley Sutton's wrestlers opened with a decisive 46-11 victory over Bristol High. The boys swimming team was to open against Norristown High on Tuesday and to journey to Moorestown High, Thursday. The girls basketball team starts against Philadelphia Girls High on Saturday at 10 a. m.

Last Sunday Dr. Paul Lehman of Princeton Theological Seminary launched the winter term speaker's schedule. This Sunday Joseph Shanc, former dean at George School and now Swarthmore College Vice President, will talk in assembly for students. Others scheduled to appear are Stephen Cary of the American Friends Service Committee discussing conscientious objection and the military draft; Dr. Frank S. Loescher, executive director of the Philadelphia F. E. P. C.; Leah M. Perkins of the George School faculty, a lecture on art; Headmaster Daniel D. West, Jr. of Westtown School; an evening musical program conducted by Robert W. Steele, school director of music.

During Christmas vacation George School was the scene of a conference of more than 50 young work campers from six states and Indo China, gathered to review the experience of last summer's work camps all over the world, to plan for future camps, and to re-examine personal positions in a troubled world. The conference was sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee.
